

Name: Sonu Abazao Sable

College: Adasawa beothees Junior

College

Std: 11th Commerce

Subject: - Economics

Q1.

→

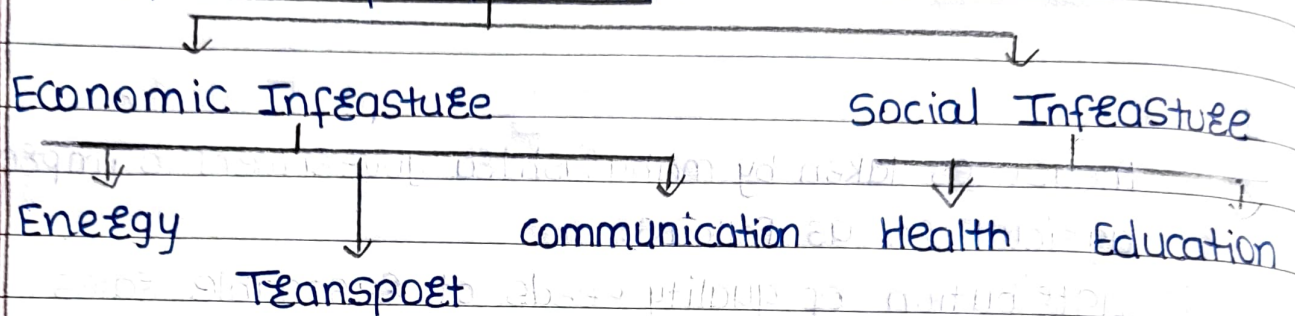

Measures taken by Maharashtra government to improve agriculture as follows:

- i] Distribution of quality seeds at reasonable rates.
 - ii] Increased number of outlets for pesticides and fertilizers.
 - iii] Development of irrigation facilities.
 - iv] Electrification of agriculture instruments and electrifying agriculture instruments on demand.
 - v] Setting APMC - agriculture produce marketing committees establishing agro export zones, horticulture training programmes, grading and packaging facilities, etc.
 - vi] Creating awareness about agricultural information through the use of mass media for making agriculture a profit making business.
 - vii] Financial assistance as per requirement.
- Therefore, These all measures mentioned are taken by government to improve agriculture.

Q2]

- i] Infrastructure :- Infrastructure is the basic requirement for economic development.
A sound infrastructure foundation is the key to overall socio-economic development of the state.

ii] Classification of Infrastructure

iii] Infrastructure development:

- Increasing installed capacity of electricity generation.
- Rural electrification, network improvement and programmes for energy conservation.
- Modified direct benefit transfer scheme to LPG consumers in the state.
- Metro Railway has started at Mumbai and Nagpur.
- Road development plan (2001-2021) is being developed and implemented in the state with a target to develop 3.37 lakh kms of road.

iv] Types of Infrastructure

- Economic development :- i] It facilitates production and distribution of goods and services for economic development.
- Social Infrastructure :- i] Social Infrastructure is also one of the important components of the economy because it improves the quality of human life as well as stimulates the economic development. ii] Social Infrastructure includes, literacy programme, education, public health, etc.

Q3]

→

Industrial development in maharashtra from 2017 - 2018 as follows:

- i] MAITRI:- maharashtra industry trade and investment facilities has been set up to provide online consolidated information about investment process.
- ii] Awards for export performance, space; rent subsidies are provided to small scale industries to encourage participation in ~~ind~~ international exhibitions.
- iii] single window cell initiated to exhibit all investors.
- iv] creation of special economic zones.
- v] maharashtra state industrial cluster development programme has been set up to develop small scale medium scale and micro- enterprises.
- vi] Industry and manufacturing played important role in the development of maharashtra.

This all above explain the development of Industrial in maharashtra.