

Date
16-12-2020

Test

Marks : 80

Name : Nandini Satish Parmesthwar
Std : 11th
College : Raghava Brothers Junior College
Sub : Economics (4.Chapter)

Q1. Measures Taken By Maharashtra

government to Improve Agriculture.

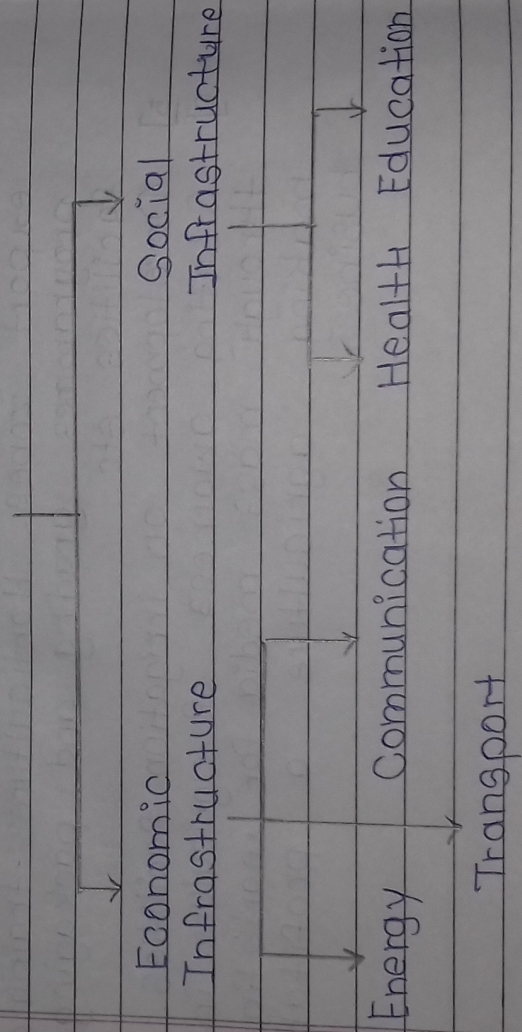

- 1] Distribution of quality seeds at reasonable rates.
- 2] Increased number of outlets for pesticides & Fertilizers.
- 3] Electrification of agriculture instruments & electrifying agriculture instruments on demand.
- 4] Setting up APMC - Agriculture Product Marketing Committee, establishing agro export zones, Horticulture training programmes, grading and packaging facilities etc.
- 5] Development on irrigation facilities.
- 6] Creating awareness of agriculture information through mass media for marketing making agriculture a profitable business.

Q.2.

Infrastructure Development and its Classification

→ Infrastructure is basic requirement for the economic development. A sound infrastructure foundation is the key of overall economic development in state. This acts as magnet for attracting additional investment in state & provides competitive edge to over other states. Infrastructural facilities are absolute necessity for fast achievement in economic growth. Infrastructure classified in following parts :

Classification of Infrastructure

1] Economic Infrastructure :

Economic Infrastructure facilitates production & distribution of goods and services for economic development. It is defined in three types as energy, transport and communication. Under this types many measures was taken for development of economic infrastructure.

2] Social Infrastructure :

Social Infrastructure is the most important one components of economy because it improves the quality of human life as well as stimulates the economic development. It not only improve quality but also give the power to produce knowledge. It includes literacy programme, education, public health, housing, drinking water and sanitation.

1.3 Industrial Development of Maharashtra from 2017-2018

- 1] MAITRI (Maharashtra Industry Trade and Investment Facilitation Cell) has been set up to provide online consolidation information about investment process.
- 2] Awards for export performance, space rent subsidies are provided to small scale industries to encourage participation in international exhibitions.
- 3] Single Window Cell initiate to exhibit all investors.
- 4] Creation of Special Economic Zones (SEZ).
- 5] Maharashtra State Industrial Cluster Development Programme (MSICDP) has been set up to develop small scale, medium scale and micro enterprises.